Dear Mr. Hunter:

RE: Gutenberg vs. Hunter
Div 506 of 2002

Mr. Hunter, the court understands you had a bit of a medical problem on February 24, 2004 which prevented you attending the first day of the trial. Counsel for Ms. Gutenberg subsequently heard from your friend saying that you would not show up on the Tuesday or Wednesday of this week either. The court placed a phone call to your residence on your answering machine requesting you to call and that did not occur.

The purpose of this letter is to advise you that the trial has been adjourned to May 13 and May 14, 2004. You are required to show up at 10:00 a.m. on May 13, 2004 to proceed with the trial. The only excuse the court will take for your non-appearance is a medical certificate by a qualified medical doctor that your health would be in jeopardy if you were to attend the trial. Otherwise, if you should choose not to attend, the trial will proceed in your absence.

Yours truly,

Dennis Berezowsky
Local Registrar
